They cut desire into short lengths and fed it to the hungry fires of courage. Long after, when the flames had died, molten gold gleamed in the ashes. They gathered it into bruised palms and handed it to their children and their children's children.

Found in the history file of Emma Cox

I was like those round bottom circus dolls that would pop up when they were pushed down. I've always said, "No matter what happens, if I get pushed down, I'm going to come right back up."

Doris Day

We have to get to the point where we start respecting, and showing more love and more care, and coming together, and becoming one unity.

Jennifer Pinckney after her husband was killed in the June 24, 2015 church shooting.

Find a way to do something nobody has done yet. Find a way to bring us together. Behold how good and pleasant it is for us to dwell together in unity.

Reverend France Davis at the University of Utah commencement address.

Each and every day is a never-ending series of moments to choose. We cannot choose how we'll be hurt, but we can choose how we heal.

Lloyd Newel

More knowledge of the faith, courage and determination of our pioneers is brought to light with each passing year and it is our great privilege to make known their vision, achievements and eagerness for learning.

Kate B. Carter

Our parents taught us to LIVE NOW, LOVE HARD AND APPRECIATE EVERYTHING!

Abe & Esther Schuster, children of holocaust survivors

If there is no God in Israel, we are a poor sucked in set of fellows. But I am going forward with my family and the Lord will open the way!

George A. Smith

A joyful spirit is evidence of a grateful heart.

Maya Angelou

On this most joyous day of all the year, God keep and bless thee, give thee hope and cheer.

A Christmas greeting written by Ellis Reynolds Shipp

-Marilyn Cox,
ISDUP Chaplain