We had a great turnout for the June ISDUP Leadership Seminar. Our new venue allows us many more options. You have all responded so wonderfully to the President’s Packet information being online. When you run into a problem don’t hesitate to contact us so we can quickly resolve any issues.

This Is the Place Heritage Park graciously invited us to attend the dedication of the Pioneer Children’s Memorial as part of SUPer DUPer Day. President M. Russell Ballard, Acting President of the Quorum of the Twelve Apostles, of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, dedicated the memorial. This memorial was done to remember the pioneer children who lost their lives on the trail. You can visit their website to see if you have connections or submit stories about those honored there: https://pioneerchildrensmemorial.com/.

A special thank you to JeNeal Wilson, Reta Roberts and Judith Obray for being at our table so visitors could learn about DUP.

The October ISDUP Convention and Election Meeting will be at Woods Cross High School, October 12, 2019. Please check the back page and the ISDUP website for details. We hope you will join us.

It has been one of my high honors to serve as your President. Daughters you are an amazing group of women who embody the pioneer spirit in all that you do and for the many years of service you have rendered sharing of your time and talents.

I extend my thanks and heartfelt appreciation to each of you. May you continue to be blessed in your efforts to remember our beloved Pioneers.

Love,

Cheryl R. Searle
ISDUP President

PIONEER HIGHLIGHT — ZINA D.H. JACOBS YOUNG

By Annette Jacobs Hansen
Sanpete North Company, Sanpete County, Utah

Zina Diantha Huntington Jacobs Young was an amazing woman. She is my great-great-grandmother and here is her story.

The Huntington family was one of the first European Puritan families to come to America in 1633. Her father William Huntington Jr. fought in the War of 1812. Her great uncle Samuel Huntington was a signer of the Declaration of Independence. This patriotic family gave Zina a rich background and heritage.

The Huntington Family joined the saints in Kirtland, then to Far West and on to Nauvoo. At Kirtland, she met her lifelong friend Eliza R. Snow.

Soon the saints left Nauvoo amid persecutions and the loss of most of their worldly goods. Zina and her husband, Henry B. Jacobs, left Nauvoo in February 1846. As they left, Zina wrote, “Shall I ever forget that day. It was cold but clear, the bells were tolling, the temple was on fire, Major Russell’s wagon was sinking on the sand bar in the river, and we were fleeing into the wilderness not knowing where we should ever find peace. But I knew this to be the work of the Lord, that He would preserve us, but not before He had tried our faith to see if we would follow His prophet.”

Zina arrived in Salt Lake City in 1848. By 1880 Zina was working with Eliza R. Snow to restore the Relief Society as it had been in Nauvoo when they were both members. Zina was treasurer then first counselor to Eliza for 21 years. During this time Zina and Eliza traveled thousands of miles through much of Utah, “assisting in encouraging and strengthening the various organizations.”

Many times, they would hold a Women’s Suffrage Society meeting after the church meeting was over. Zina helped start a nursing school and a hospital. Zina was a trained midwife and delivered around 1,000 babies.

Zina was defiantly an advocate for the women’s right to vote. As Relief Society President of the Church, she attended many suffrage meetings in the East. She was a friend of Susan B. Anthony. Zina was Vice President of the National Council of Women. Zina must have had the gift of persuasion and conviction; imagine her attending a large crowd of women, speaking about a very controversial topic. It would have taken an extraordinary amount of self-confidence and commitment to speak and represent Utah.

It seems I have always known about Zina. I have a sense of pride and belonging as a descendant and a responsibility that I live my life to bring honor to their names.
CHINESE ASSOCIATION VISITS EVANSTON

A delegation from the Chinese Railroad Workers Descendants Association accompanied ISDUP President Cheryl Searle to Evanston, Wyoming on May 2nd as part of the 150th celebration of the completion of the transcontinental railroad. The tour began with the delegates and several local people meeting at the Uinta County Museum. Kay Rossiter, Museum Director, acting as tour guide took everyone to the Joss House (a replica of the original Chinese temple in Evanston burned in 1920) to tell the story of Evanston’s Chinatown through the artifacts and diorama on display there. The Chinese guests explained many of the artifacts facts from their culture and interpreted some of the items written in Chinese to the local residents attending the tour.

Jim Davis of the Evanston Preservation Committee, then led the group down China Mary Road past the Chinatown archaeological dig of 2014 and the location of Evanston’s Chinatown during the 1870s-1920s. The next stop was the Evanston City Cemetery where Joe Cox, Sexton, took over as tour guide. We visited the graves of China Mary and Mormon Charlie, two well-known Chinese in Evanston’s history. We then went to two other plots where the Wong family are buried. Margaret Yee, chairperson of CRWDA, was very excited as the Wong’s were part of her family from her ancestral village in China. Again, the Chinese interpreted the Chinese writings on the headstones.

The last stop was at the Roundhouse in the Railyards where Dudley Gardner, archeologist, presented a power point about the dig and further history of the Chinese in Wyoming.

The tour was hosted by Cheryl Searle, President of ISDUP and member of Utah Governor’s Spike 150 Commission, and Donna Ludvigson, President of Uinta Wyoming Company. Other arrangements were made by Jim Davis of the Evanston Preservation Committee, Kay Ann Saxton, Wyoming Regional Representative to the ISDUP Board; Kent Williams, Mayor of Evanston and Nancy Stevenson and Mickey Cox, Evanston city employees.

Ruby Norris, current outreach chair of Uinta Wyoming Company, and Ruth Robbins, newly appointed outreach chair, worked cooperatively with camp members to have displays in the Uinta County libraries in Evanston, Mountain View and Lyman as part of the sesquicentennial celebration.

POWELL EXPEDITION SESQUICENTENNIAL

By Kay Ann Saxton, Wyoming Regional Representative

The Sesquicentennial Colorado River Exploring Expedition (SCREE) departed from Expedition Island in Green River, Wyoming, May 24, 2019. It was 150 years ago that John Wesley Powell launched his boats from the same spot to explore the Green and Colorado Rivers.

Major John Wesley Powell, and his crew of nine men, launched their four boats into the river directly off a Union Pacific flatbed railroad car. This was possible because the Transcontinental Railroad had just been completed in the Utah Territory just two weeks earlier. Powell shipped the expedition’s four boats directly from Chicago to the launching point at Green River Station, now known as Green River, Wyoming.

The commemorative launch by SCREE ended two days of activities and events in Green River. As an outreach project the Uinta Wyoming Company DUP put displays in the Uinta County Libraries in Evanston, Mountain View, and Lyman.

ISDUP has three markers telling the stories at locations along the Green and Colorado Rivers: 26, the Jensen (Maur-be) Ferry at Jensen, Utah; 208, The Powell Survey at Kanab, Utah; and 350, Lee’s Ferry at Lee’s Ferry, Arizona.

WHAT’S IN A NAME

By Maurine P. Smith, former ISDUP President

Contact the History Department for the full article

Daughters, do you know why your camp name is what it is? Is it Susan, Jeanette, Henry D. Moyle or #30, or is it Camp G? Why was that significant to the ladies who organized it in the first place? Perhaps you were one of the Charter Members so you know all about it. But do the newer members know?

One day, while I was International Registrar, I received a call, asking permission to give their camp a new name, “because the name, ‘Camp 30’ certainly didn’t have much going for it.” I asked her if she knew why their camp was “Camp 30”? Of course, she did not. I asked her what Ward in the city did she belong to. She replied, “The Thirtieth Ward.” Why was it called the Thirtieth Ward? Because it was the thirtieth ward organized in Salt Lake City. In the early organization of DUP the leaders from “Central Camp” would visit a ward Relief Society and make an announcement that she would conduct a short meeting after Relief Society for the purpose of organizing a Daughters of Utah Pioneer camp in their Ward area. Anyone interested in joining were invited to attend. A new camp was begun just that way and named for the Ward it was in. The daughter was much more impressed with being a member of “Camp 30,” they were truly a pioneer camp.

CAMP AND COMPANY JUBILEES

Salt Lake Olympus Company, Salt Lake City, Utah — Anniversary of the Transcontinental Railroad.

Davis Heritage Company, Davis, Utah — Wedding of the Rails.

Tooele County Company, Tooele, Utah — Pioneer Hats and Shawls Jubilee.

QUILT DISPLAY HONORS COMPANY HISTORY

Madison District Company, Rexburg, Idaho celebrated their first district convention this year. The past was honored in a quilt that shows the original 12 camps. Lela C. McCulloch, a faithful member of Daughters of Utah Pioneers for 55 years, created the quilt. Several years ago, she invited each camp of the Madison Company to submit a quilt block reflecting each Camps’ unique identity. She put them all together doing the quilting and binding. We honor her memory and dedication to DUP through the years. She filled every position in her camp several times and was Company President for four years. What a sweet legacy of history she gave us.

ROYALTY OF WEBER COUNTY COMPANIES

In June, the Weber County Companies of Weber, Utah held their annual DUP recognition awards. Recipients are recognized for their outstanding work done in the DUP and in their communities. The crowning, held at the Weber Museum, was attended by friends and family. This year’s royalty are: Norma Rae Jensen Porter, from Camp Mount Fort, Weber South Company; Florence Nichols, from College Heights Camp, Weber Far South Center Company; Noreen Larkin, from Camp Polly Hammon, Weber Roy Company; Darlene Stoddard, from Camp Oakwood, Weber Far South Company; Carolie Bolingbroke, from Camp North Fort, Weber North Center Company. Congratulations Royalty! Thank you for over 135 years of combined service to the DUP.

UINTA RECEIVES AWARD

On May 16, 2019, the Vernal Area Chamber of Commerce held their 70th Annual Meeting and Awards Dinner. In the Business of the Year category the Chamber recognized the Uintah Company of the Daughters of Utah Pioneers with a Lifetime Achievement Award. Several company and camp board members, including one of our newest members, were present to receive the award.

OLD FORT HALL OUTING

Pocatello, Bannock, Idaho North and South Companies were invited to gather together in May at the Old Fort Hall replica. About 50 Daughters were in attendance. The meeting took place inside the museum building. Their hostess, Jacquee Alvord, presented a history of Fort Hall and the surrounding area. She brought to life what it was like for those first inhabitants who built the fort. Old Fort Hall has a story to tell. It is a story of the most thrilling periods of Western American history. A young nation full of adventure and yearning for new beginnings started the trek westward. It reminds us of the strong will, determination and faith it took to overcome many obstacles, conquer a vast wilderness of uncertainty and hope for a better life.

Legacy • Summer 2019
SOBOBA CAMP ATTENDS CONVENTION

Soboba Camp, of Riverdale Company, attended their annual district convention held in Hemet, California earlier this year. The theme was Native American Culture and its effect on the settlement of Utah Territory from 1847-1869. Guests were Maryann Jensen, from ISDUP and Mary Fellers, the Regional Representative. Company presidents attending were Marlene Anderson, Inland Empire; Bettie Wilson, Riverside; Diane Miller, San Bernardino and Kathleen Rask, Victorville.

The Soboba Indian Reservation from San Jacinto, California provided the entertainment. Carrie Garcia demonstrated making Indian baskets and Mike Madrigal sang bird songs and explained the history of Bird Singing. Those attending were enriched and the convention was a success.

GINGERBREAD SOCIABLE

Valley Ranchero Camp and Euclid/Indian Hills Camp, of the Inland Empire Company, Southern California, joined forces earlier this year and provided the program and crafts for the Pomona Library Gingerbread Sociable which honors Laura Ingles Wilder who wrote Little House on the Prairie.

Children enjoyed making pioneer Leav-in’s Dolls and listening to stories about the dolls. They played Flip the Can and “Buzz Saw” Cat’s Cradle. There was a “museum” of artifacts where the children and their parents could visit and listen to stories. More than 50 children had a great time.

DESERT ROSE CAMP SOCIAL AND CHARTER MEMBERS

Desert Rose Camp, of Washington East Company, St. George, Utah was chartered September 10, 1997. We would like to honor three of the original members still in our camp: Dorthea Horrocks, Betty Strong and Connie Seamons. Their DUP service and experiences are deeply appreciated by all in our camp. Thank you Daughters!

Outreach Programs

A VISIT TO THE MORGAN DUP MUSEUM

Morgan Company, Morgan, Utah, has six camps with Kim Folk, as the Company President. Every year, the Company provides a full morning of Pioneer History and games to fourth grade students at Mountain Green Elementary and Morgan Elementary.

This year, there were six areas. Dorothy Little taught what family life was like. Barbara Moyes, and others, led a scavenger hunt in the museum. Rachel Turk and Linda Smith, from the Morgan Historical Society, told pioneer stories in the Relic Room. Clifton Jenkins and his daughter, Melissa, talked about bees. The Hardscrabble Camp Daughters taught how to make a button game. They also played the i-Palm Game by writing the name of their ancestor on their palm and saving it with their thumb. If they did not know the name then they would search with their finger button. This led into a discussion about how important it is to know your ancestors. Each student received a slice of bread with honey butter.
PRESTON DUP MUSEUM OPENS!

The Franklin Company found a home for their artifacts in a new museum in Preston, Idaho. The Grand Opening was in June with Mayor Mark Beckstead in attendance. Building owners Doug and Sandra Webb donated some space in a small building for the museum. The Museum has many items that came across the plains with the settlers of Franklin County. On display is a pioneer sitting room, kitchen, and tool room. The tools hang on boards donated from Harold B. Lee’s family barn. The Museum, located at 115 E. Oneida Street is open June through August, Fridays and Saturdays, from 11 am to 4 pm and by appointment.

HANKIES FOR PIONEER CEMETERY

Maintaining the Union Pioneer Cemetery in Sandy, Utah is a big responsibility of the Far South East Company. To cover the costs of mowing, trimming, watering, repairs, etc., the Jordan River Temple Handkerchief Project was born. Laced-edged or hemmed handkerchiefs are machine embroidered with the Jordan River Temple stitched in one corner. Mavis Glad, Marlene Maxfield and Debbie Elggren, a friend of DUP, took orders for this labor-intensive project. In a three-month period using two bolts of fabric and 562 yards of lace they made over 500 handkerchiefs. Time and materials were donated which resulted in $2,880.00 for the Pioneer Cemetery Fund!

HANSEN CORPORATE DAIRY MARKER 334

Box Elder North Company celebrated the 4th of July in style, with the restoration of Marker 334, Hansen Corporate Dairy established in 1871. Pam Bennington welcomed the crowd for the rededication of the restored monument. Carl S. Hansen, a descendant of Christian Hansen, rededicated the marker located in Beaver Dam, Utah.

MIDWAY LIME KILN MARKER 209

On May 3, 2019, on a beautiful spring day, at the base of Midway City Memorial Hill, (400 East River Road 250 North), Paul Brimhall offered a rededicatory prayer, for Marker 209 Midway Lime Kiln. The kiln operated from 1878 until 1922.

POTTERY SHOP MARKER 175

In 1893, Ephraim Roberts built a pottery in Naples (Hwy 40 near Vernal). He produced butter churns, jars and flowerpots, etc. Marker 175 was moved and restored to its original condition. Its new location is near Naples City Offices. Paul Brimhall gave the rededicator prayer on May 4, 2019.

REYNOLDS FLOUR MILL MARKER 233

Reynolds Flour Mill Marker 233 was restored and a replica of the mill, provided by the Rescue Rangers and others has been replaced atop the monument located at Maesar (2500 W 1500 North). A rededicator prayer was offered by Paul Brimhall on May 4, 2019.
SPECIAL DAUGHTER RECEIVES KEYS TO THE CITY

Virginia Fife, 101 years young and a 60-year plus member of the Thomas Rhoads Camp, Sacramento Company, California, was awarded the keys to the City of Elk Grove California and the Mayor’s Medal of Honor. Elk Grove Mayor Steve Ly made the presentation in Virginia’s home. This honor was given in response to Virginia’s almost 75 years of service to the community and her outstanding example as one of the town’s earliest matriarchs.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY SYLVIA BLAIR THOMAS
PIONEER HONOR ROLL DAUGHTER

Friends and camp members of the Provo Canyon Crest Camp, Provo Company, Utah, got together to celebrate the 96th birthday of Sylvia Blair Thomas, one of the last two remaining Daughters of an original pioneer. In her earlier years, Sylvia recognized the opportunity to form a new camp where she lived so she chartered the Provo Canyon Crest Camp! The camp is true blue to Sylvia and picks her up for monthly camp meetings, gatherings and socials. Happy Birthday to a very special Daughter.

PIONEER WOMAN OF THE YEAR AWARD

Canal Creek Camp recipients of Spring City, Utah, Sanpete North Company, were presented the Pioneer Woman of the Year Award this summer by Cheryl R. Searle, ISDUP President. Carla Nelson, Camp Captain also known as a spark plug along with Kay Watson, Lesson Leader, and prolific writer, Cherrie Barrow, Sec/Treasurer, Museums Director, also a prolific writer, and Christie McGriff, Museum Docent and a spark plug and motivator were honored recently at the Sanpete North Company Jubilee. They each received this prestigious award for outstanding service in preserving and promoting the pioneer history of Spring City. Kay’s long-term involvement in the Community Committee helped in restoring the Spring City Old School; Cherrie, Carla and Christie helped restore and set up the DUP Old City Hall and Jail Museum and the DUP Museum in the Old School; Christie obtained grant monies for a pocket park and a foundation preservation project for the Old City Hall DUP Museum. Future plans are also in the works for a pioneer park.

ALENE BELL TUFT

Alene Tuft, 98 years young of Monroe Canyon Assisted Living, Monroe, Utah, received her 60-year membership pin from Constance Huntsman, ISDUP Vice President and Historian.

During a visit with Alene, Mary K. Outzen, Sevier South Company President, learned Alene had been a member of DUP for sixty years. This conversation set the wheels in motion. Mary and Susan Outzen made plans to obtain the pin without Alene’s knowledge in order to surprise her.

Alene joined Camp Monroe Mountain in 1958. Since then she has belonged to camps in Walla Walla, Washington, St. George, Utah, Richfield, Utah and finally coming full circle by transferring her membership from Camp Kimberly in Richfield back to Camp Monroe Mountain, Utah.

On hand for the surprise presentation were Alene’s daughter Mauri, Camp Kimberly Captain Vanez Butler and members Peggy Mendenhall, LaRue Larsen, Dorothy Henrie, Dianne Brienholt and RaNae Jackson. Alene also received a DUP headstone medallion from her dear friend Deidre Hansen.
SPIKE 150 WAGON TRAIN 2019

Stacy Evans Bliss is a member of Salem Camp, Utah South Center Company in Utah. She is proud of her pioneer heritage. Her grandmother, Jane Evans, was a member of the DUP Spanish Fork Camp. Stacy has been participating in wagon trains for over 23 years. She has an authentic freight wagon and four Belgian draft mules that pull the wagon. This is what she does for vacations and this year she and 140 other people traveled in 21 wagons with 97 animals, 74 trucks and 86 trailers headed for Promontory Summit, in Utah.

The wagon train started with the “Opening Ceremony for Spike Week,” which was an All Horse Parade in Brigham City, Utah beginning on May 4th, 2019. The wagon train consisted of 140 people, 21 wagons, 97 total animals, (horses and mules) 74 trucks and 86 trailers! They were their own little traveling community moving down the trail and into camp.

Stacy says, “Our rides are very spiritual. We take our children and grandchildren and become a moving community. I was very proud to display my DUP flag on our wagon as we participated in the Spike 150 wagon train.”

Over a two-day period, the wagon train allowed children and adults to climb on the wagons and take pictures. They talked to the visitors about the wagons and their history. They had thousands of visitors.
