Company Lesson Leader Responsibilities

Introduction
Providing the lessons at the monthly DUP camp meetings is an important function for the meetings. As company lesson leader you provide training to the camp lesson leaders and provide any assistance they might need throughout the year.

Summary of ISDUP Constitution and Bylaws
This is an appointed position.

Responsibilities
1. Assist Camp Lesson Leaders in Preparing Lesson from the ISDUP Lesson Book
   • Work to communicate the importance of purchasing the lesson book from ISDUP annually.
   • Help camp leaders know basic understanding of the lesson format and photos available from ISDUP.
   • Use information provided in the International section of the President’s Packet.

2. Provide Overall Tips and Information to Camp Lesson Leaders About Preparing and Giving Lessons
   • Share to the following teaching tips to camp lesson leaders:
     o Each camp is required to have a lesson leader who is responsible for the lesson, whether she gives it herself or assigns it to another camp member.
     o Lessons must be 25 minutes or less, according to the bylaws. Only give what can be presented in allotted time.
     o Study the entire lesson, then choose the parts you consider most interesting to give as your lesson o Dates can be deadly so please use sparingly.
     o Be enthusiastic and don’t read the lesson as your presentation.
     o Consider including the following when giving the lesson: music, first person stories, skits, picture displays, artifacts, and maps.
     o You don’t need additional material.
     o The lessons presented in the camp meetings are to be just a brief portion of what has been compiled. Remember the lessons are compiled into a volume annually and these books are used as a valuable research tool. This is why the lesson material is so lengthy.

3. Provide Leadership and Training to Company Board and Camp Lesson Leaders as Directed
   • Conduct training to camp lesson leaders.
   • Distribute information form ISDUP regarding the role of the camp lesson leader.
   • Use current forms and information on the ISDUP website.

4. Perform Other Duties as Assigned by the Company President
